TO CITE OR NOT TO CITE

CITE WHEN

- you copy another person's words
- you use another person's ideas, even if you paraphrase
- You use information that isn't common knowledge
- You use material from books, articles, websites, etc.

NO NEED TO CITE WHEN

- You use your own ideas, opinions, or facts
- You use common sayings or phrases
- The information is common knowledge